Cookies

At visits to the websites of Hubela Itzik l'Odyssee Diamonds cookies are placed on the visitor's computer; cookies are information elements placed on the hard disc of your computer every time you visit a website. The first purpose is to enable smoother use of the website (among others because certain information, e.g. at access check, does not need to be repeated). Cookies can be switched off from the hard disc with most internet browsers; the correct operation of the website can then no longer be guaranteed in all circumstances however. Cookies and log files also make it possible to examine the way the website is used more closely. The information an individual user views or prints will not be checked. The aim is to collect statistical information to optimise the website and inform advertisers. The websites of Hubela Itzik l'Odyssee Diamonds can use Google Analytics, a web analysis service provided by Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies" (small text files placed on your computer) to help the website analysing how the users use the website. The information generated by the cookie about your website use (including your IP-address) is transferred to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google uses that information to monitor how you use the website, to create reports about the website activity for website operators and to provide other services related to website activity and internet use. Google may pass on that information to third parties if Google is forced to do so legally, or if those third parties process the information on behalf of Google. Google will not combine your IP address with other data at Google's disposal. You can refuse the use of cookies by setting your browser accordingly. However we inform you that it could be that you cannot use all the facilities of the website in that case. By using this website you allow Google to process the information in the way and for the purposes described above. Your personal data can also - in encrypted format that does not make it possible to identify you - be transferred to others. Via a cookie placed on your computer your internet use is processed anonymously so the commercial information proposed by websites can be adapted to your profile (e.g. your age, gender or region). The thus created file can - also in a way that does not make it possible to identify you - be enriched with personal data that you provided to other companies with whom agreements were concluded with the purpose of processing for direct marketing. You can refuse or remove cookies on your computer via your browser settings. As the privacy laws evolve considerably, the privacy section of this website can be updated.
